FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT™ FOR HEALTHY LIVING
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

If you want to change the world, you must be willing to do things differently.

VERY Differently.

So differently, in fact, that most people won't really understand what you're trying to do until long after you've done it.

That's how it is for the Y. In our efforts to create lasting personal and social change for the people of Central Florida, we do a lot of things differently. Some may think our ideas are crazy. Others might feel they are unrealistic. And many believe what we want to achieve is impossible.

Still, many more have discovered the truth: what the Y does works. It works for our community today. And it is setting a new standard for how things will be done tomorrow.

Sometimes, the hardest part about being a leader is waiting for the world to catch up.

» IN THE YEAR 2025

EVERYONE will follow the educational models that we are creating today.

» TODAY

The Y is impacting education nationwide by setting a new standard for academic achievement and high performance in 21st Century schools.

Working in collaboration with educators, business leaders and local governments, we are creating better learning environments that close the academic achievement gap between our children.

A lot of people said this couldn't be done. But we proved them wrong in 1999, bringing together educators, business leaders and government agencies to create the co-located NorthLake Park Community School and Lake Nona YMCA. In the years that followed, test scores went up. Parents developed stronger relationships with teachers and became more involved in their children's education. The community grew stronger and more connected. And today, 1,000 children and their families learn, connect, and keep themselves healthy at the NorthLake Park Community School / Lake Nona YMCA every single day. The experiment exceeded everyone's expectations, establishing a new standard for education in our community and beyond.

Building on the success at Lake Nona, we also established a new model for higher education at Brevard Community College, which is co-located with the Cocoa YMCA. And now, we are getting ready to launch a new school in Osceola, which will help students who have fallen behind catch up and graduate on time.

And the Y's impact on education extends well beyond the walls of the classroom. Every summer at Camp Wewa, 3,000 elementary and middle school children take part in activities that improve their health and well-being while making friendships that last a lifetime. And every year, 1,500 high school students embark on the path to a college degree or trade studies because of the guidance they receive in our Teen Achievers mentoring program.

These efforts, together with the efforts of Ys across the country, will change the face of education across our nation.

The innovative learning environments developed by the Y have proven to be successful in the classroom and sustainable for their communities. As others adopt our approach, we will change the way our children learn for good.

REMARKABLE IMPROVEMENT. MEASURABLE RESULTS. The Y always believed that students would perform better in these revolutionary new learning environments. Now, we have the proof. At NorthLake Park Community School (NLP), the academic achievement gap between students of different socioeconomic backgrounds is getting smaller every day.

NLP has been an A-rated school since the day doors opened.

Free/reduced-lunch students at NLP score better in all FCAT subject areas than the Orange County School District average and the Florida average for students in the same category.

On average, NLP students in all tested grade levels consistently score better in Math, Reading, Science and Writing than their peers in the State and District.

All students at NLP score better in all FCAT subject areas than the Orange County School District average and the Florida average for students in the same category.

› IN THE YEAR 2025

EVERYONE will take water safety as seriously as we do today.

› TODAY

The Y is spearheading programs that reduce child drowning and keep swimmers of all ages safer in the water.

At the Y, we are committed to safety. That's why you'll find a lifeguard at every single pool. When our commitment to water safety catches on everywhere else, it will be a safer world for all of us to swim in.

Statistics show that Florida loses more children under age five to drowning than any other state.

The Y is working to turn those numbers around. Thanks to Safe Start, the innovative water safety program we developed in partnership with Dr. Phillips Charities, more than 10,000 children – some as young as six months – have learned life-saving techniques that will keep them safer around the water for the rest of their lives.

At the Y, we want to give everyone the opportunity to enjoy the water in a healthy way. As “Central Florida's swim coach,” our swim lessons have helped thousands of children, teens and adults – many of whom would not have access to a pool without the Y – develop the confidence and skills they need to swim safely. And safety is only the beginning.

People who know how to swim still flock to our pools for one reason – to have fun! Swimmers with a competitive streak can join swim teams, dive teams, or play water sports. Children can play and splash beneath the summer sun in outdoor pools that feature water slides, fountains and other fun features. And whether they are swimming laps or taking a low-impact water fitness class, people get stronger and healthier with every stroke when they work out in the water at the Y.

By taking on the leading cause of preventable childhood death and injury, we are forging a safer world for future generations.

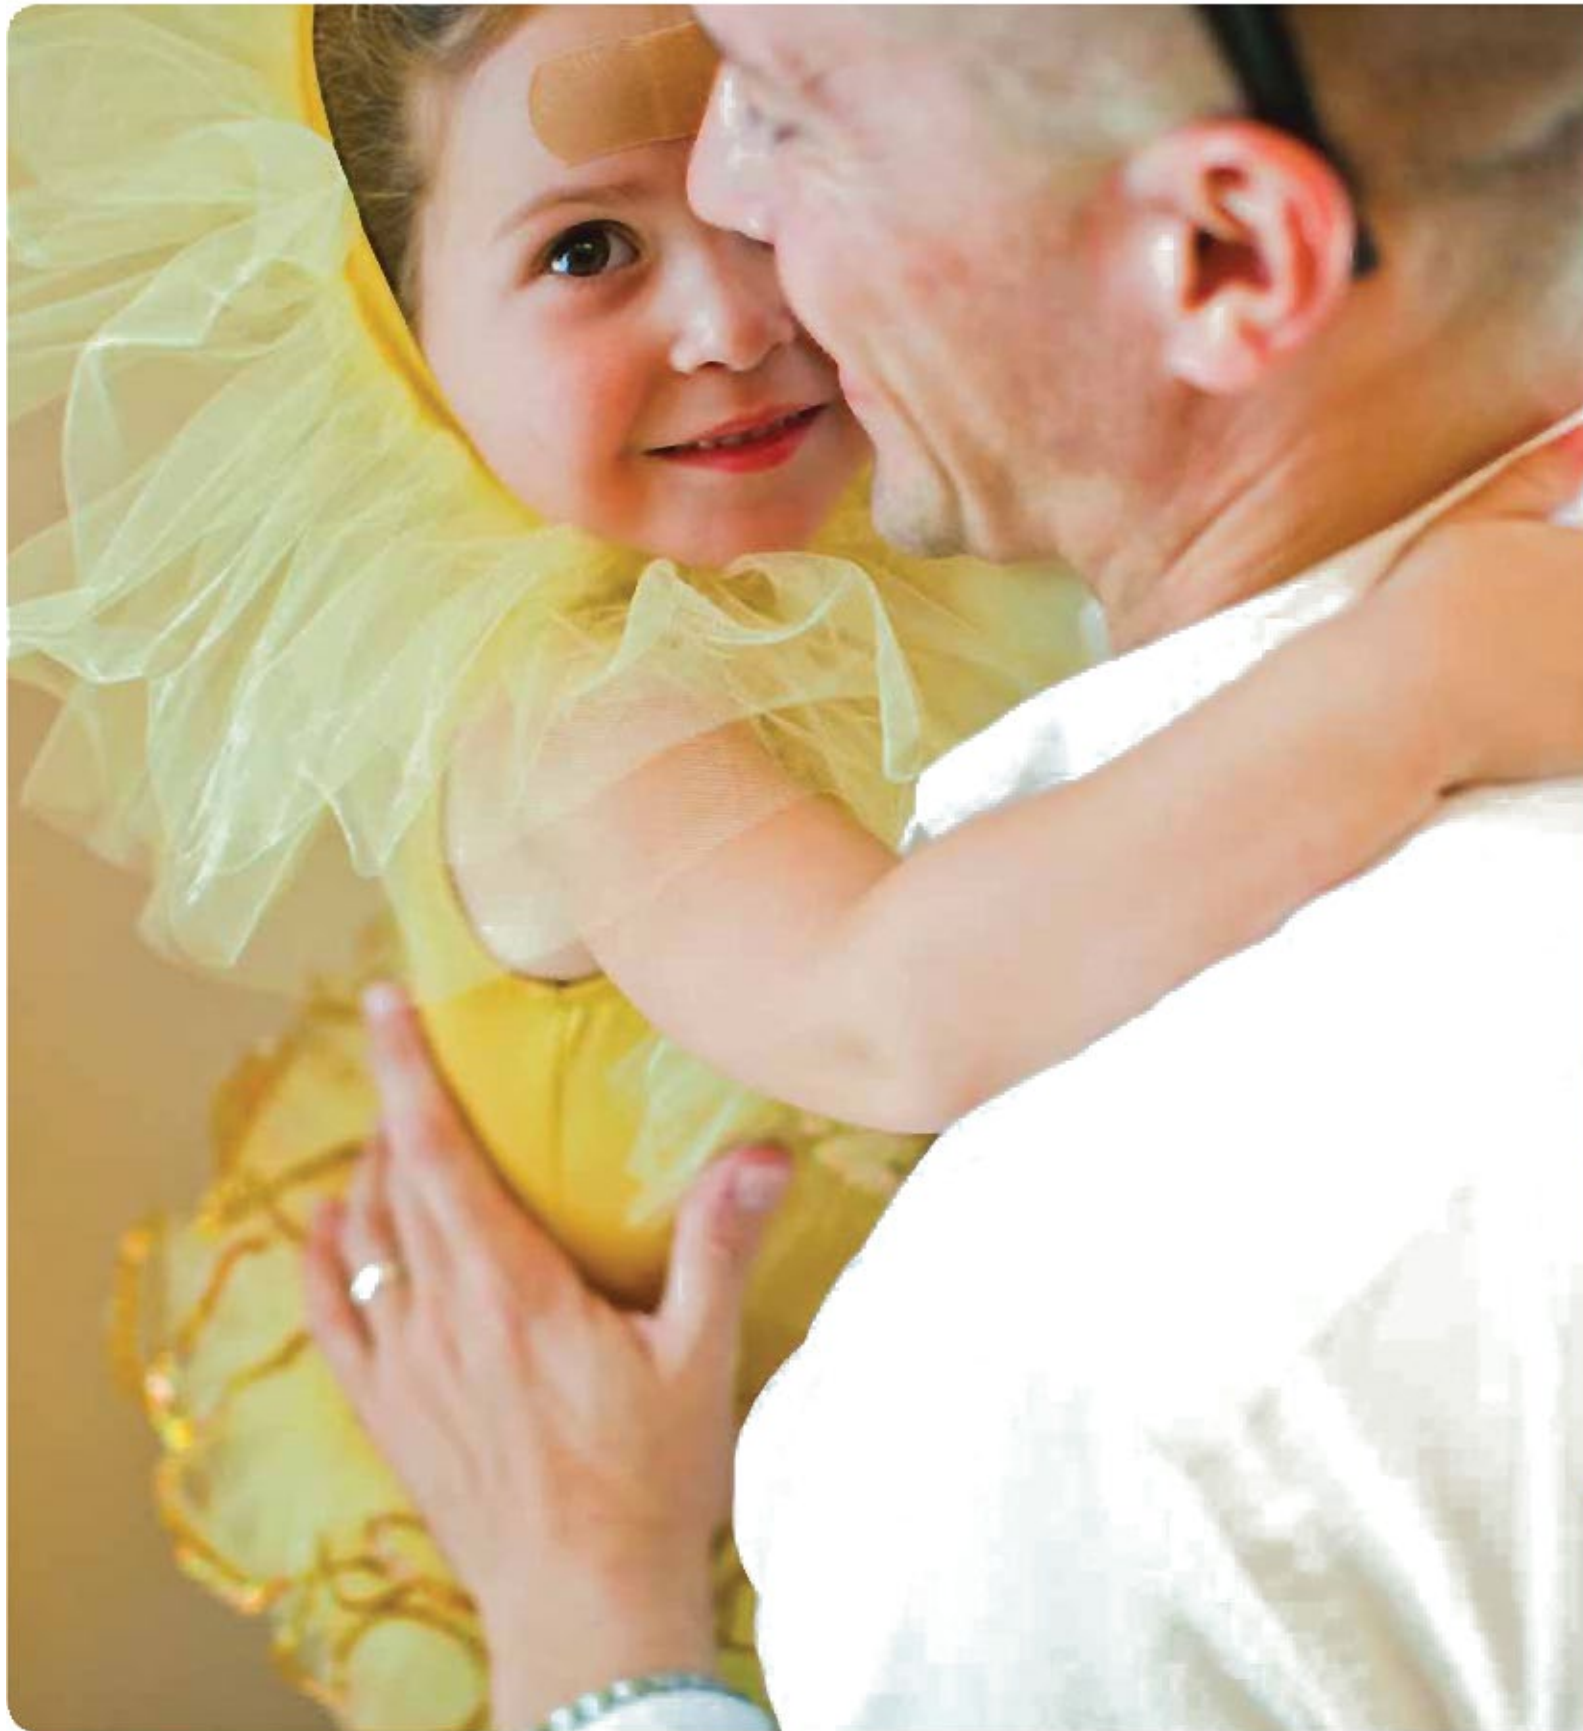

SWIMMING POOLS AND SO MUCH MORE

Our deep passion for aquatics is on display every day at the YMCA Aquatic Center, home to some of the nation's most exciting competitive swim meets and events – including the recent Olympic trials. Here, in these very waters, aspiring teens train with former Olympians as coaches. A few have even gone on to become Olympic-level champions themselves.

FITNESS FOR THE FUTURE

Swimming gets the heart pumping, the blood flowing and the muscles working – plus it's much easier on joints than high impact exercise. As our population ages, working out in the water will provide older men and women with an excellent fitness alternative. Between our swimming programs, pool aerobics, and other water fitness programs, our members can stay active all their life at the Y.

› IN THE YEAR 2025

EVERYONE will champion
early childhood development the way
we do today.

» TODAY

Today, the Y is pioneering programs that foster learning and brain development in preschool-age children. The caring, nurturing environment we provide is essential for getting the learning process started. And when kids start learning earlier, they achieve so much more later in life.

Our groundbreaking Family Centers at the Walt Disney World Resort have obliterated the idea of traditional “day care” and redefined early childhood development for the next generation.

While many preschool programs provide nothing more than babysitting, ours immerses children in a dynamic, nurturing and culturally diverse environment. Surrounded by caring and highly qualified professionals, children learn, interact, and participate in educational activities that stimulate their growing minds. And since the Ys are located on-site at our area’s largest employer, working parents enjoy the invaluable opportunity to take a break from their workday and participate in the care and development of their own children.

Parents will find the same nurturing environment at every Y of Central Florida Child Development Center, where children are always welcome – unlike traditional fitness facilities. Today, all families can find their second home together at the Y.

At the Y, child development starts early and lasts long. As others follow our lead, more children are assured a lifetime of good health and high achievement.

YOUTH SPORTS: SO MUCH MORE THAN A GAME

When it comes to youth sports in Central Florida, no one offers more opportunities, more teams and more fun than the Y.

Every day 1,000 kids play their hearts out on our basketball courts and on our sports fields in a safe, nurturing environment.

With the help of their caring volunteer coaches, kids develop game skills and good sportsmanship, and the confidence that comes with giving something your all.

And with more than 40% of Americans projected to be obese by the year 2008, it’s never been more important to help the kids of our community embrace exercise and discover the fun side of an active lifestyle.

AFTER SCHOOL AT THE Y: WHERE THE LEARNING GOES ON.

The key to early childhood development is keeping kids’ brains active and engaged. Every second offers a new opportunity for a child to learn.

For children who are old enough for school, the Y continues to support brain development through our after school programs, which we provide at 41 different sites for 2,600 elementary school students and 1,500 middle school students. That’s more programs, serving more schools than any other Y in the country.

These programs provide students with a productive learning environment in which they can study, participate in challenging activities and keep learning. And we owe it all to the unparalleled strength of our partnership with Orange County Public Schools.

► IN THE YEAR 2025

EVERYONE will practice disease prevention the way we do today.

» TODAY

The Y is proactively preventing disease in our communities by providing every man, woman and child in every Central Florida community with access to the programs they need to stay healthy and connected right in their own neighborhood.

Every day, 25,000 people count on the Y for the programs they need to stay healthy and active.

At the Y, we know that stopping disease from starting is far more powerful than fighting it once it arrives.

That's why we invite people of all ages and socioeconomic backgrounds to come together and embark on the path to a healthier lifestyle. And with 30% of Americans – including 25% of Floridians – currently obese, we are working harder than ever to help more people get healthy today and stay that way.

As a provider and powerful advocate of programs that prevent obesity, diabetes and heart disease, we strive to keep our doors open to everyone – including those in underserved communities. In fact, the YMCA of Central Florida serves more outreach communities than any other YMCA in the country, and provides financial support for more than 30,000 Members who cannot afford to pay for the Y on their own.

We strengthen communities from the inside out, member by member, by empowering everyone to get healthy today and stay that way. As other organizations begin to focus on preventive health and community wellness, every man, woman and child will feel the difference.

STRENGTHENING THE COMMUNITIES THAT NEED US MOST

Some organizations shy away from serving economically challenged communities. Not the Y. After all, we exist to strengthen communities. All communities. Especially the ones that need us most.

That's why we established 11 outreach Y's in the most economically challenged communities of Central Florida. We believe that the men, women and children in these communities deserve the same access to our resources. They deserve a place to gather safely as a community. They deserve the opportunity to get healthy as a family. They deserve programs that will help them prevent disease and stay healthy for a lifetime.

These communities deserve a Y to call their own. So we invest $10.2 million into these Y's every year to keep the doors open to everyone that needs us.

FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT | FOR HEALTHY LIVING | FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

› IN THE YEAR 2025

EVERYONE will harness
the power of partnership
the way we do today.

› TODAY

The Y regularly joins forces with public and private entities, forming complex partnerships that produce great results, and redefining the way our communities come together.

Partnerships have always been – and will always be – essential for the work we do at the Y of Central Florida.

Through the power of partnership, we have made an ongoing investment in the programs and facilities that keep our communities strong, healthy and connected.

So much of what we do would simply not be possible without the support of our most dedicated partner, Dr. Phillips Charities. With more than 25 years of commitment and over $25 million in gifts, Dr.

Phillips Charities has empowered the Y to change countless lives and communities. Their generosity, along with the generosity of many other partners, has allowed us to transform our facilities into the exceptional Family Centers that serve 156,910 Y Members of all ages across Central Florida today.

Bolstered by these enduring partnerships, we will continue to invest in ongoing renovations and capital construction. By keeping our Family Centers up-to-date, we keep our communities moving forward and connecting in a place they love.

US Secretary of Education Arne Duncan calls the co-located YMCA/elementary school a “model for the 21st Century.”

The Y knows that bringing about positive change starts with bringing the right people to the table. As others learn to embrace the opportunities created by public-private partnerships, making the world a better place will become everyone’s responsibility – as it should be.

PARTNERSHIP MAKES OUR WORK POSSIBLE

In 1999, the WINTER PARK HEALTH FOUNDATION fueled our efforts to create a healthier community by making a $9.2 million investment and turning over operations of the Peggy and Philip B. Crosby Wellness Center and Oviedo YMCA Center for Health & Wellness.

With a $4.5 million investment and ongoing support from Walt Disney World Resort, the WALT DISNEY WORLD RESORT YMCAS set a new standard for family care and early childhood development by giving young children a place to thrive and their parents – who work as Walt Disney World Cast Members – priceless peace of mind.

Loyal, lifetime supporters of the Y, the ROPER FAMILY has donated more than $1 million to our community efforts. Barbara Roper also serves as an active member of the Metro Board.

Thanks to a $1.6 million investment from WAYNE DENSCH CHARITIES, the children and teens of Pine Hills have a welcoming place in their own neighborhood to grow, thrive and receive valuable guidance from mentors and role models: the Wayne Densch Y.

The DARDEN FOUNDATION contributed $900,000 towards renovation efforts in South Orlando and Wayne Densch Ys, ensuring that the young people of those communities can continue to grow and succeed in a safe environment. Clarence Otis serves on the Metro Board for two years and continues to provide leadership capital to the Y of Central Florida.

Making a $4 million investment, BREVARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE (BCC) partnered with the Y to transform their existing physical education facility with gymnasium and pool into the state-of-the-art Cocoa Beach Y, the first Y located on a community college campus.

ORANGE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM (OCPS) joins forces with the Y to run Middle and Elementary afterschool programs where kids can be safe and engage in a positive learning environment.

With the support of ORANGE COUNTY PARKS AND RECREATION, we established the Blanchard Park Y, a 27,000-square-foot Family Center at the heart of Jay Blanchard Park – the first YMCA in a County Park.

The Y partnered with LAKE NONA PROPERTY INC., TAVISTOCK, ORANGE COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS, THE CITY OF ORLANDO, and ORLANDO REGIONAL HEALTHCARE SYSTEM to create the co-located Lake Nona Y and NorthLake Park Community School, an innovative learning environment model to help our children succeed.

In 2006, LOCKHEED MARTIN provided a major gift that enabled the South Orlando Y to build an on-site Technology Center to promote and encourage math and science interests among students.

Among many other things, the ORANGE COUNTY GOVERNMENT helped the Y build a public park, providing a venue for the general public to get healthy and for youth to have access to sports, recreation and learning programs offered by the Y.

OSCEOLA COUNTY, the CITY OF KISSIMMEE and OSCEOLA COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS raised $1.9 million to renovate and expand the Osceola County Y, a vital community hub and safe haven for area teens.

Partnership with developer BEAT KAHLI helped us create the first Y Express. Located in Avalon Park, this innovative Y occupies a fraction of the space of a traditional Family Center, while still providing of the community with access to the excellent health and fitness programs that the Y is known for.

» IN THE YEAR 2025

THE Y will be as committed to strengthening our communities as we are today.

› TODAY

The Y works to develop the potential of our children, promote the health and well-being of every man, woman and child, and keep our communities strong, healthy and connected. Our work is never done.

Because when you are an organization committed to a cause, that cause never changes, even if everything around it does.

Even last year, as the Y unveiled a fresh and dynamic new brand, we kept our efforts focused on what has always mattered most: our cause, which is to strengthen the communities we serve.

We strengthen our communities by uniting our communities. We produce more good by understanding that the bad – war, drugs, crime, murder – doesn't come from bad people. It comes from disenfranchised people. People who feel as though they don't belong to anything. At the Y, we create a platform for belonging that welcomes every man, woman and child

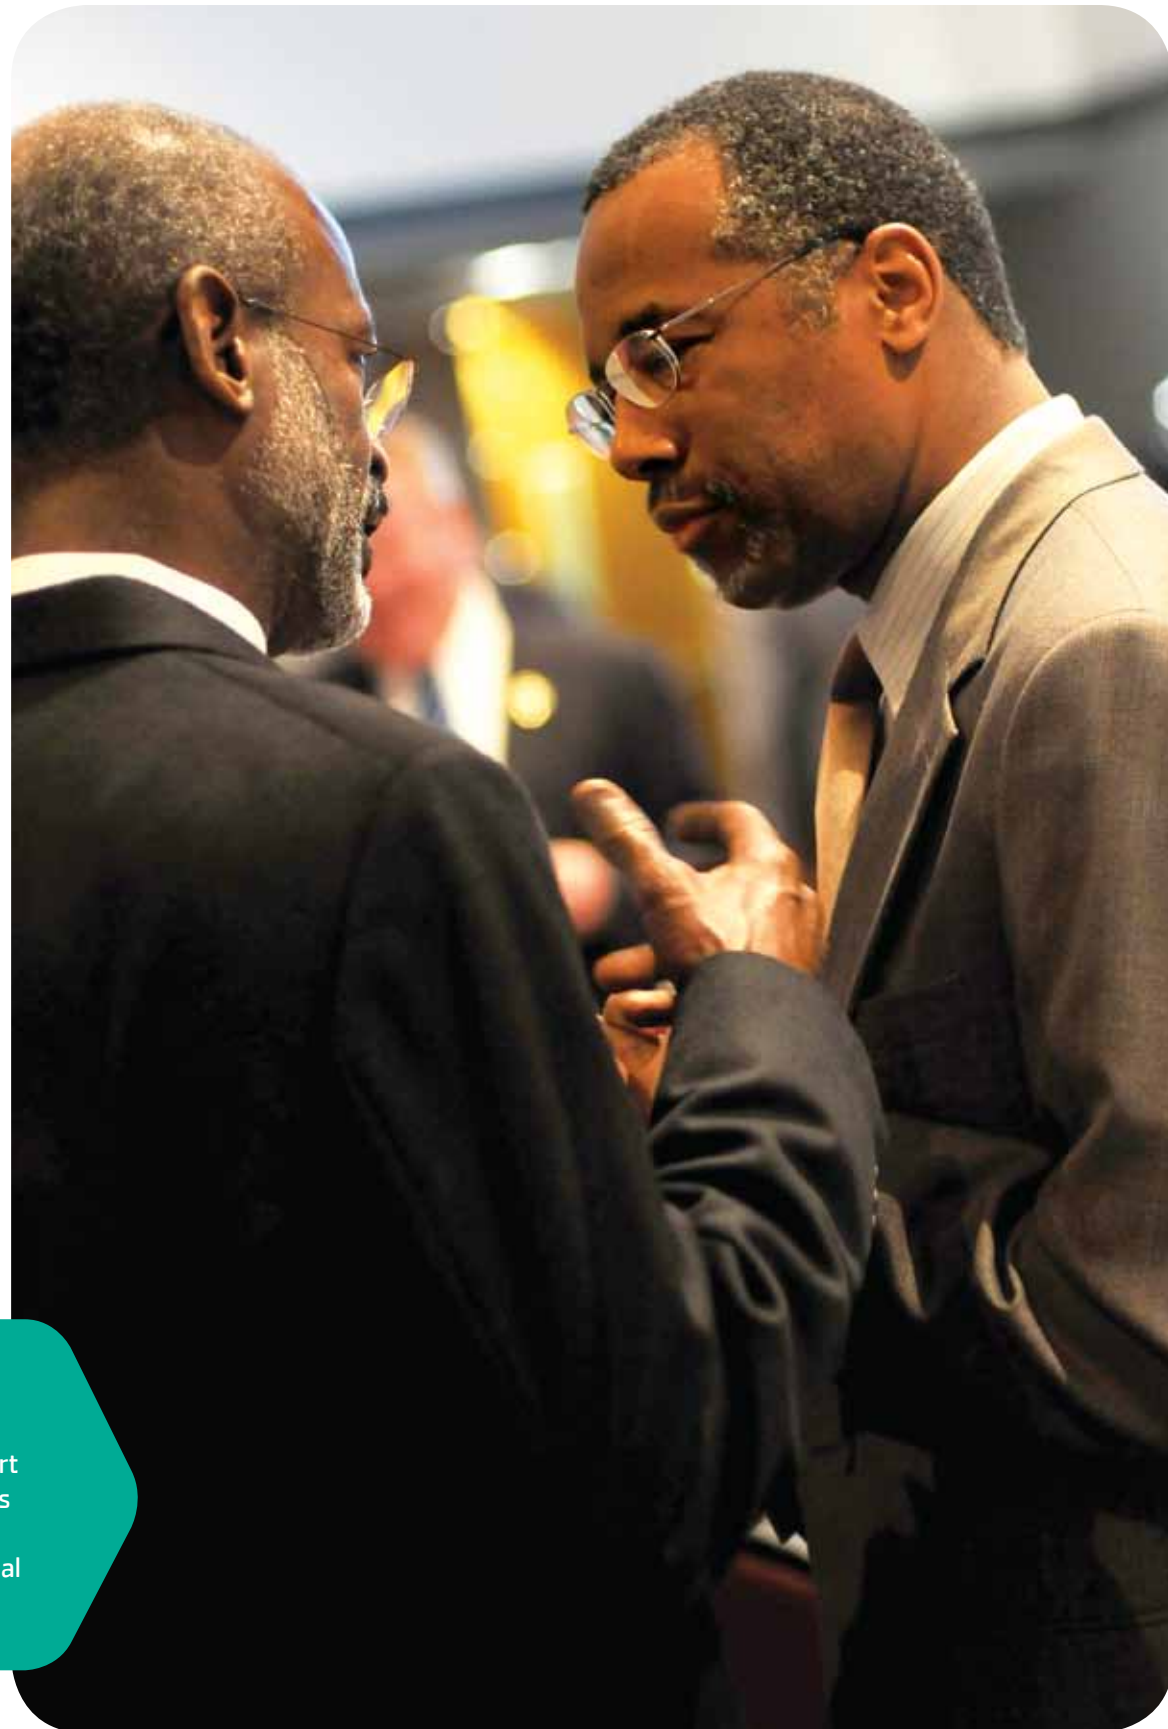

Committed to our cause, we will continue to blaze our own path for moving forward and making Central Florida a special place to live, grow and thrive. The world may not understand our path as well as we do today. But one day, they will follow in our footsteps.

in Central Florida. We offer places and programs that help everyone stay strong healthy, and connected. We create opportunities, including our annual prayer breakfast and other events, for the entire community to come together as one. We live, breathe and work for our cause with every move we make.

With our cause as our guide, we will continue to tackle new challenges, develop new solutions, and find new ways to create lasting personal and social change in the world around us.

NURTURING THE SPIRITUAL HEALTH OF OUR COMMUNITIES

The Y also works just as hard to support spiritual health, uniting our community's religious leaders and congregations at prayer breakfasts that celebrate spiritual life and positive values.

The YMCA of Central Florida encourages spiritual growth in our community with our annual Arthur "Pappy" Kennedy Prayer Breakfast in commemoration of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Celebration of Prayer. Dr. Benjamin Carson, world-renowned Johns Hopkins neurosurgeon, challenged our community to elevate the standards of academic excellence for our youth. And Kathleen Kennedy Townsend, former Maryland Lt. Governor and daughter of Bobby Kennedy, encouraged us to give back and help others.

› DEAR MEMBERS

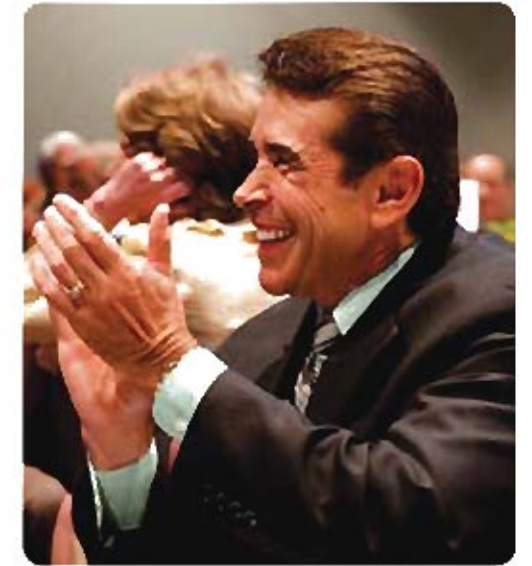

When you look back on all that has happened here at the Y, it's natural to focus on the things that have changed. After all, that's what it means to be an organization at the forefront of social progress. Continuous innovation. Constant improvement. A never-ending drive to do things differently. To do things better. But when it comes to the Y, it's just as important to reflect on what hasn't changed.

And what NEVER will.

Every day, our challenge lies in finding new ways to make our communities stronger. And every year, I am so proud of the way our team – including our partners, Dr. Phillips Charities, Walt Disney World, Wayne Densch Charities, Winter Park Health Foundation, and others – rises up to meet that challenge. We never ask why things should be done a better way. We simply ask how. We never shy away from a task that seems too big, too ambitious or too difficult. We simply roll up our sleeves and get to work.

While the Y may be an organization in constant motion, all our actions revolve around the cause that has defined us for decades: a burning passion to strengthen our communities.

It is this attitude that has propelled us to where we are today. And it is this attitude that will keep us moving forward as we continue to create lasting change across Central Florida. As we build the future that the next generation will inherit.
