GREAT LEADERSHIP.

Many believe it's the ability to do things first. At the YMCA of Central Florida, we know that leadership means being able to see things first. To see potential where others see plight. To see hope where others see hardship. And to see future possibilities where others see a finished product.

That's how we've managed to keep our community growing strong year after year. Where others have seen only obstacles, the Y has seen opportunities to change lives for the better. Where others have looked only at present challenges, the Y has envisioned a future filled with possibility for every man, woman and child. And where others have found only dead ends, the Y has focused on distant horizons and forged new paths to get there.

BECAUSE WE SEE, WE LEAD. BECAUSE WE SEE, OUR COMMUNITY SOARS.

PREVENTION AS THE KEY TO A LONG AND HEALTHY LIFE.

So the Y is reinventing our entire approach to wellness to put a greater emphasis on prevention and a proactive approach to healthy living.

A PROACTIVE SOLUTION WITH PROVEN RESULTS

In 2010, 10.1% of Florida adults were diagnosed with diabetes, making the state the 10th highest in the nation when it comes to diabetes in adults.

In addition, 1.2% were diagnosed with prediabetes, a potentially reversible condition that often leads to diabetes. The YMCA Diabetes Prevention Program targets these at-risk individuals, arming them with the tools, knowledge and motivation they need to stop this disease in its tracks.

Based on extensive research by the National Institutes of Health, the 12-month group-based program provides guidance and encouragement from a trained lifestyle coach and classmates facing similar challenges. With the help of this support network, participants learn how to eat well, exercise more, reduce stress, and solve their problems in a more constructive manner.

The program consists of 16 core sessions followed by monthly maintenance sessions to keep participants inspired and motivated to meet their goal: losing 7% of their body weight and gradually increasing physical activity to 150 minutes per week.

A focus on prevention has always been part of our landscape at the Y. And now our commitment is stronger than ever.

At the Y, our holistic approach to prevention encourages men, women and children to commit to healthy living not just while they are working out at the Y, but all day, every day, in every area of their lives.

While doctors are preparing to switch their focus from disease treatment to disease prevention in light of upcoming changes to national healthcare, we at the Y are continuing to support health and wellness through a range of ambitious and far-reaching efforts.

We just relaunched the YMCA Diabetes Prevention Program, which helps adults at a high risk for Type II diabetes learn about and adopt the healthy eating and exercise habits proven to reduce the risk of developing the disease. Similarly, the Healthy Weigh program offered at the Crosby YMCA helps individuals change their lifestyles dramatically with the guidance of a licensed health care practitioner.

And prevention isn't just about providing programs for people with health problems. The Y is exploring a number of new initiatives to empower and educate all our members, even the healthiest ones. We see a future in which every Y features a diet and nutrition center serving healthy food throughout the day, as well as training labs that teach members how to shop for healthy groceries and prepare delicious, nutritious meals at home.

The motivation, support and programs provided by the Y empower people to take their health into their own hands. Together, we will curb obesity, reduce the rate of diabetes and heart disease in our community, and keep every man and woman thriving at any age.

THAT READING IS A KEY
BUILDING BLOCK OF LEARNING.

So the Y is revitalizing our education and youth development programs to incorporate reading into the curriculum and inspire a passion for learning that will help children thrive at every age.

CLOSING THE ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT GAP

The Y has a long history of developing and delivering innovative learning programs that complement the existing education system. Our programs fuel the entire education continuum from birth through the teen years, providing kids of every age with the resources and support they need to thrive.

In our Early Childhood Development Centers, preschool age children engage in activities that stimulate their young minds. At the co-located Lake Nona YMCA/Northlake Park Community School, elementary school students are immersed in an innovative learning environment that's been heralded as a model for future education. Our After School and Summer Learning programs foster continuous learning, so middle school students can keep flexing their brains even while school is out. And through Teen Achievers, our volunteer mentors help high school students prepare for a successful future at college, trade school, or in the military.

With these programs, the Y is helping to close the academic achievement gap between children and produce healthier, more connected kids across our community.

As a recognized leader and innovator in the world of education, the Y has always believed in harnessing every opportunity for learning and development.

At the Walt Disney World Family Centers, we developed a revolutionary, education-focused approach to childcare that helps preschoolers prepare for kindergarten. Through a groundbreaking partnership between Northlake Park Community School and the Lake Nona Y, we created an innovative learning environment that keeps children and parents more strongly connected with teachers, educators and the community.

And now, we are taking another important step forward. The Y has incorporated reading into the curriculum of all our youth development initiatives so that kids can keep flexing their brains even after school lets out. In our after school programs, elementary and middle school students read about the activities that they love so they learn that reading can be fun. And in addition to adding reading components to our summer camp programs, the Y now has real school teachers leading the camps to facilitate learning. They allow working parents to keep their children in a positive, stimulating environment even while school is out. And, by helping kids read at their grade level or above, we keep them from losing ground when they're out of school. No one works harder than the Y at preparing kids to thrive in the classroom, and ultimately, in college, the workplace, and in life.

The Y also expanded our Teen Achievers program. In addition to preparing kids for college, we are also helping them consider other positive options for the future, including the military or trade school. Our approach to education is all about helping each child achieve his or her own true potential.

STRONG VALUES TO AN ENTIRE COMMUNITY.

So the Y is demonstrating, strengthening and instilling strong values in everything we do.

POWERFUL LEADERSHIP.
POWERFUL ADVOCATES.

All the people we serve, all the lives we change, all the communities we empower, our fellow advocates help to make it possible.

Our most dedicated advocate, Dr. Phillips Charities, has honored us with more than $25 million in gifts and 25 years of commitment, enabling our organization to continuously transform facilities and enhance the services we offer to our more than 150,000 members.

Today, as we blaze a new trail for the future, we look forward to joining forces with other leading organizations who support the same issues that we advocate so hard for. By establishing new relationships with fellow advocates, such as the American Heart Association and the American Diabetes Association, we will continue to develop innovative initiatives that promote healthy living at every age. We will broaden the reach and strengthen the impact of our efforts. We will become an even better and more effective advocate for the long-term health of our community.

At the Y, we do more than talk about values. We bring them to life every day in our own actions and serve as a powerful role model for the men, women, children and partners of our organization.

On the television. In the movies. In the songs you hear on the radio. It seems as though everywhere you turn these days, you find examples of people exhibiting poor values. The good news is, there's still one place that you can always find strong values in action. You'll witness them every day, in everything we do at the Y.

A volunteer coach teaching fairness and good sportsmanship to a team of young athletes. A scholarship recipient still able to come to the Y thanks to the generosity of our members. A team of volunteers who gave up their Saturday afternoon to mentor a group of Teen Achievers. A trainer teaching a group of seniors new exercises to keep them strong, healthy and independent. A group of residents coming together to pray for the common good of the community.

These are just a few examples of how our core values—caring, honesty, respect, responsibility, and faith—come to life every single day at the Y. And now, we are building on these core values with a new focus on empathy—the ability to genuinely feel and understand the plight of others. And integrity—a commitment to doing what is good and right, even when no one is looking.

These values are the foundation of a strong, healthy and sustainable community. At the Y, we promote these values across our community not by talking or lecturing, but by leading. By living these values every single day. By bringing them to life in every single action. By setting an example for every man, woman and child to follow.

THAT DIFFERENT

STAY HEALTHY.

So the Y is revamping our Family Centers and fitness options to better serve individuals at all ends of the spectrum, from the fitness beginners to elite athletes.

CREATING A MEMBER-FOCUSED CULTURE

As part of our commitment to creating a more personalized experience for our members, the Y is refining our entire approach to member relations.

With a little help from the experts at The Disney Institute, team members at every level are undergoing extensive retraining to identify and adopt behaviors that will transform our culture. The process will empower our team members to ENGAGE and CONNECT with more members, create a stronger IMPACT in people's lives, and leave a lasting LEGACY of change in our community.

At the Y, we believe that everyone, regardless of age or physical ability, should be able to take advantage of the innovative programs we offer.

That's why we have made a number of exciting changes that will help every member adopt a healthy living plan based on their own individual levels of fitness and goals.

Last year, we kicked off Coach Approach,[®] a customized, one-on-one support program designed to help individuals who have trouble sticking to a fitness regime. The program was developed by medical professionals in response to a shocking new research finding: 98% of the population does not exercise as much as they need to. With Coach Approach,[®] the Y strives to turn those statistics around by helping more people stay motivated and on track. We have also reorganized our wellness floors and fitness classes to accommodate three distinct fitness levels: the introductory Health-Seeker, the more challenging Step-Up, and the most advanced Athlete level. So whether you are new to working out and could use a little push to stay on your program, or you are an elite athlete who uses the Y as your daily training center, you'll find exactly what you need.

The Y also makes it easy for people to embark on a healthy lifestyle at any age. More than 10,000 children—some as young as six months—have finished Safe Start, our innovative water safety program that teaches life-saving techniques to keep kids safer around the water. And every day, more than 1,000 young athletes, ages four and up, hit the field or court as part of our youth sports program. Besides developing game skills, sportsmanship and confidence, these kids develop a love for healthy activity that can last a lifetime.

On the other end of the spectrum, seniors and individuals with limited physical abilities are staying active thanks to low-impact aquatics workouts, which keep the blood pumping and the heart healthy without straining the bones and joints. For swimmers and non-swimmers alike, the Y's neighborhood pools and aquatics programs provide the key to lifelong healthy activity.

The Y offers adults the support, flexibility and encouragement they need to make fitness part of their everyday lives. We help kids connect with the joy of healthy living at a young age. We provide seniors with more opportunities to stay active and connected through all their years. We keep our members motivated and our community growing strong.

WE BELONG TOGETHER.
WE BELONG TOGETHER.
WE BELONG TOGETHER.

So we bring together our diverse neighborhoods and communities to support every man, woman and child in our community. We are committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for all. We are committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for all.

EW

A COMMUNITY THAT UNITES, EMBRACES AND EMPOWERS EVERY SINGLE PERSON THAT BELONGS TO IT.

So the Y is intentionally bringing together our diverse neighborhoods and forging a supportive, nurturing and unified community for every man, woman and child in Central Florida.

GOLF AND SO MUCH MORE

Since 2011, Tangelo Park children have been working on their swing and their studies at the innovative Y Golf and Learning Center.

Here, kids take golf lessons at a state-of-the-art golf facility then receive homework help from experienced tutors. It's a perfect way to introduce kids to a new sport while reinforcing the importance of school in their lives. The Y plans to extend the successful golf and learning program to several other Family Centers in the near future.

While the Y will always be a wonderful place to work out, we also provide members with something even more important: a way to connect with and care for the community and the people around them. And we're proud to report that the connection and caring is stronger than ever.

Last year a record number of volunteers pledged countless hours and boundless energy to keep our programs running smoothly.

We distributed more money through our scholarship program, much of it to members who have never needed support before but are now facing temporary hardship due to the changing economy. And we continue to support 11 Ys in communities with scarce resources, giving everyone an opportunity to get healthy, gather safely, and belong to an organization that changes so many lives for the better.

The Y also brings people together to have fun and share special moments. Whether it's a team of young athletes rejoicing after a big win on the sports field, two friends trying out a new class at their Family Center, or several families coming together to celebrate our shared values at special events such as Celebration of Prayer or Healthy Kids Day, people can count on the Y to keep the men, women and children of our community connected all year long.

They can also count on us to make a continuous investment in enriching the experience of our members and add more value to our communities. This year, we completed an exciting renovation of the YMCA Aquatic Center, creating a modern, state-of-the-art facility that will proudly host the biggest swim meets in the state, the best swimmers and divers in the nation, and everyday Y members who appreciate the benefits of a water-based workout. We also enhanced the Winter Park Y, adding new locker rooms, spinning room, and welcoming gathering area for members. And, we just put the finishing touches on the new Osceola Y, which we transformed into a community hub that connects our Family Center with area schools and forges a stronger bond between parents, educators and children.

By bringing so many people together to connect, care for and share values with one another, the Y is forging a great community that can learn, grow and thrive as one.

THE POTENTIAL FOR GREATNESS
THROUGHOUT OUR COMMUNITY.

So the Y is leading the way in bringing that greatness to life, knowing that our legacy will be a stronger, greater and more connected community for future generations.

That's what we're really working for at the Y. Not just a few little improvements here and there. An entire legacy of change that touches the lives of every man, woman and child for generations to come.

In looking back on all the Y accomplished last year, it's easy to think about our work in terms of our separate achievements.

For instance, we've put more people on the path to long-term health by strengthening our focus on prevention. We've helped children lay a stronger foundation for learning by incorporating reading into the curriculum for all our youth development programs. We've fostered an environment of caring, honesty, responsibility, faith, respect, empathy and integrity by instilling strong values in everything we do. We've motivated more members to stick to their fitness program by creating new options for people of all ages and fitness level. And, we've inspired the people of Central Florida to connect with and care for their neighbors and their communities a little bit more.

While we are proud of each one of these achievements on their own, we are prouder still of what they mean as a whole.

At the Y, strengthening communities is our cause. By serving as a leading force for change in so many different areas, we have made our community stronger in ways that will have a lasting impact.

AT THE Y, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITIES IS OUR CAUSE.

Armed with an unwavering commitment to this cause,
we will continue to change.
To innovate. To reinvent ourselves as often as we must to keep giving the people of our community everything they need to stay strong.

Dear Members:

When you've been serving a community for as long we have – fifty years and counting – you're bound to have to reinvent yourself once in a while. And as you've just read, the Y has spent the past year doing just that. From strengthening our efforts around prevention to reworking our entire approach to wellness to reinvigorating our youth development programs, we've made so many tremendous changes this year. It's been wonderful to witness the way these changes, made all across our organization, have had a real and measurable impact on the men, women and children of this community. What's even more wonderful is knowing that the impact will continue long after the year ends.

At the Y, we're not simply changing the lives of people in our community today. We are building an entire legacy of change. One that will shape the future of the next generation. And the one after that. And the one after that.

And we couldn't do it without the hard work and generous support of our partners, volunteers, donors, staff, and members. It will take all of us to forge a stronger, healthier and more connected community for every man, woman and child. I'm proud to say that we are on our way. Together, we will make the Central Florida of tomorrow an even greater place to live than it is today.

Every day at the Y, we work to make our communities stronger. That work simply wouldn't be possible without a strong financial foundation. Our cause and our financial commitments go hand in hand. That's why we closely track all our efforts, carefully measuring the impact and keeping a keen eye on the bottom line. The following information demonstrates our financial stability and growth in 2011. You will see that we have managed to keep our business strong. And this makes our commitment to our cause even stronger.

PUBLIC SUPPORT & REVENUE	2010	2011
Contributions	$8,083,000	$8,558,000
Grant & Contract Revenue	$3,994,000	$3,672,000
Total Public Support	$12,077,000	$12,230,000
