

THE REAL VALUE OF THE Y

YMCA OF CENTRAL FLORIDA | 2017 COMMUNITY REPORT

When I reflect back on this last year, I am struck by the highs, lows and the profound impact the Y had on our community.

The biggest low that I'm referring to, of course, was Hurricane Irma. The storm was frightening and devastating. It has been a number of years since we've experienced a hurricane of that magnitude and people were not prepared. The loss of power for so many and for so long made life difficult. And, while we couldn't bring the power back, I was so proud of the innovation and dedication of our team and our Family Centers around Central Florida that helped bring comfort and relief to so many people, whether Y members or not.

The Y was there for people in other ways, too. Next year, students will be going to college because of their involvement in our Teen Achievers program. Others are overcoming health challenges like diabetes and heart disease with the support of our programs and trainers. Still others are finding support during hard times in their lives.

These are the things that make me proud to be a part of the Y movement - we are there for our members and our community no matter what.

I'm grateful for the hard work and support of our many donors, our incredible board and our dedicated team. They never tire of helping people and strengthening our community.

I don't know what this next year will bring, but I know with 100% certainty that, whatever it is, the YMCA of Central Florida will be there for anyone who needs us.

Sincerely,

DANIEL WILCOX
President and Chief Executive Officer
YMCA of Central Florida

MY Y. YOUR Y. OUR Y.

People. Each of us is different. Which is why, what the Y means to each of us is different, too.

This simple fact is what makes the Y so incredibly special. Every member, every donor, every volunteer loves us and connects with us for their own personal reason — or in some cases, many reasons.

We have members who value the Y because it's "their" place to connect with friends and neighbors. Their Family Center is their place to feel welcomed and cared about and spend time with people they care about too.

We have members who value the convenience of being able to go to Family Centers throughout Central Florida, so they never have to sacrifice their commitment to good health no matter where they are throughout the day or week.

We have members who value the Y for all the good we do in the community. For them, being a member is a way to do their part in giving kids and teens a safe place to go after school or providing students in at-risk neighborhoods with the chance to experience college through our Teen Achievers Program.

We have members who value the opportunity to serve as a volunteer basketball coach and others who find value in the fact that the Y is the one place where the whole family can spend time together in a safe, healthy, values-oriented place.

We have members who want to support a place rooted in Christian values. And we have members who value the Y's commitment to serving everyone in our community, regardless of age, regardless of socioeconomic standing, regardless of ability.

The fact that our members value us in so many different ways tells us that we're doing something right. We're making our entire community stronger by strengthening each member, one life at a time.

Samuell Dyer | YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

When Samuell Dyer became a YMCA of Central Florida Teen Achiever in 2014, he couldn't have imagined how it would prepare him for college or help him grow as a young man. "Whether it's the Teen Achiever sessions at my high school or at the Tangelo Park YMCA summer program, or even all of the college tours I went on, it is still the greatest experience to help me to learn," Samuell says of the Y-based program. Samuell, now a graduating senior from Jones High School, was diagnosed with autism and a learning disability. Through Teen Achievers, he was able to branch out of his comfort zone: "At first, some students were not comfortable around me and I was not comfortable around them. Sometimes it was hard for me on college tours and it made me feel uncomfortable, but the Achievers team, volunteers and other students helped to make me calm and comfortable." Samuell learned how to interact, how to communicate more effectively, how to make his own decisions, and—most importantly—how to be himself. Because of all the great strides and accomplishments he made throughout high school, Samuell was accepted to Beacon College. Thanks to Teen Achievers, "I do not call myself weird anymore. I learned that I am unique," Samuell says. And he is proud that he can be himself every step of the way going into his future.

Elsie Sierra | HEALTHY LIVING

After her husband passed away in 2002, for five years, Elsie Sierra says, "I couldn't do anything." Today, with the help of the South Orlando YMCA, that is no longer the case. You would be hard-pressed not to find her there at least four days a week for two hours at a time. "I started coming to this Y eight or nine years ago and I didn't know what to do [at first]—I had never been to a gym. Now, if I don't come, I'm in a bad mood." 71-year-old Elsie, who hadn't exercised for years at a time, is now passionate about working out. She urges us all to exercise: "Everybody: young people, middle-aged, seniors—like me—do something. Make time for you." Though she's always been thin, now she can lift a 30-pound barbell over her head with each arm and feels closer to age 30 than 70. "Nothing hurts," she says, "I don't know what I would have been if I didn't exercise. I feel great."

Ryan Rohrs | SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Ryan Rohrs was working as a correctional officer for the state of Florida when his family joined the YMCA of Central Florida as members through the Annual Support Fund: "I didn't feel like I didn't belong; I just felt like some friends were helping me out. And then when I got to the point when I could afford it, I was proud that I could pay for my whole membership because I knew that allowed those scholarship dollars to go to other people who needed help." The entire Rohrs family, including Ryan's wife Angela and their two young children, were loving their days at the Frank DeLuca YMCA because the kids could get their activity time in while Mom and Dad worked out on their own. The kids could play soccer, kickball, and games together under supervised care of the Y team. Things were going well for this Y family, and then Ryan was in a terrible motorcycle accident, causing his body to "fly an entire city block before coming to rest against a concrete light pole," resulting in the loss of his leg. Ryan says of his accident, "I could have died easily that day. I know that God saved me." While he was recuperating in the hospital, Angela received a phone call from the Y, asking if it was ok for their family to receive a medical scholarship until Ryan was healthy again. While Ryan was completing his out-patient rehabilitation, he also began working out at the Y again and finding comfort from his Y community. Ryan has made an incredible recovery, and now the Rohr family is a Scholarship Program donor again, giving back to the Y in so many ways.

CELEBRATION OF PRAYER

At our annual Celebration of Prayer on April 13, YMCA Executive Committee Member Renaut van der Riet led the group of spiritual and community leaders in prayer and invited everyone in the audience to #sparkmovement by giving $5 (donated by the Y) to someone in need.

Orlando Police Chief John Mina and Fire Chief Roderick Williams share the stage at the Pappy Kennedy Prayer Breakfast on January 16.

26TH ANNUAL PAPPY KENNEDY PRAYER BREAKFAST

Orange County Sheriff Jerry Demings, recipient of the Southwest Orlando Jaycees Lifetime Achievement Award, shakes hands with internationally recognized human rights activist Dr. Richard E. Lapchick, who shared his message of hope and unity with the audience.

FAMILY CENTER RENOVATIONS

Right: A team of volunteers from Lowe's donated time and supplies to improve the Osceola Y, including painting interiors, building a new fence around the fields and retiling the entryway.

HEALTHY LIVING

Clockwise, top right: Y Members participated in the Let's Move for a Better World fitness challenge to win prizes for youth wellness programs at South Orlando YMCA; Chef Gary hosted a Sunday supper on Facebook Live; Hundreds of kids from across our community came out to play, have fun and learn all about healthy living at Healthy Kids Day.

WATER SAFETY

Through our Safety Around Water Week, the Y offered 2,000 complimentary swim lessons to children ages 4 through 12.

And with support from our No Child Drowns summer cause initiative, the Y set aside $42,250 to cover swim lessons for 563 children in need.

#ybekind

After Hurricane Irma hit Central Florida, the YMCA opened our doors to anyone in the community who needed a hot shower, cool air conditioning or just a place to rest and recover after the storm. The profound impact of this effort sparked our #YBeKind campaign, which inspires and rewards kindness across our community.
